NOVEMBER 3-5, 2023
MUNSEE LANGUAGE & HISTORY SYMPOSIUM
LUNAAPAHKIING, HULUNIIXSUWAANKAN, LUNAAPEEWAK
(Munsee Land, Munsee Language, Munsee People)

This event continues and deepens ongoing relationships with Lunaapeewak (Munsee people) from Munsee-speaking tribal nations, bringing them together with Princeton students, staff, and faculty on their own traditional territory, Lunaaapahkiing. Sessions focus on archival evidence pertaining to residential schools, as well as on public history, the role of libraries and archives, and the development of K-12 curriculum.
